COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 435 B. II, dated 23rd June 1941.

Regarding the introduction of the Pre-audit Cheque System in respect of bills payable at Bangalore.

To

All Drawers of Bills at Bangalore.
The Officer in Charge, State Huzur Treasury, Bangalore.
The Officer in Charge, Bangalore Taluk Treasury.

At present, the practice is, for this office to return all bills such as salary, establishment, travelling allowance, contingent and other bills presented for pre-audit with enfacement of payment orders for being cashed at the State Huzur Treasury or Bangalore Taluk Treasury. This practice will be discontinued and in lieu thereof Preaudit Cheques drawn by this office will be issued for payments to be made from 1st July 1941, agreeably to the instructions contained in Government Order No. Fl. 8449-90—G. F. 337-40-1, dated 20th June 1941, sanctioning the above scheme. Bills containing enfacements of payment orders bearing a date later than 30th June 1941 should not be cashed by these two Treasuries.

2. In the case of claims of Gazetted Officers and of private persons or firms for services rendered or articles supplied, the bills presented for audit should be duly receipted by the payees and bear receipt stamps where necessary, vide Article 13, M. C. A. C., Volume I and also this office Circular No. 409 B. II, dated 17th April 1940.

3. Pre-audit Cheques are current only till the end of the month following that in which they are issued. If a Pre-audit Cheque is presented for payment after the expiry of the period of its currency, the treasury on which it is drawn should require it to be returned to this office for renewal before cashing it.

4. Pre-audit Cheques will be charged in the bi-monthly lists of payments under one item as "Pre-audit Cheques." A list showing the numbers and amounts of Cheques should be submitted daily together with the cashed cheques in support of the charge in the List of Payments.

5. The present procedure for presentation of bills for pre-audit remain unaltered. The messengers surrendering the tokens issued by this office in acknowledgment of bills presented for audit will receive the cheques instead of the bills, and the drawers are accordingly requested to depute reliable persons for receiving the cheques. It is desirable that all bills payable at Bangalore are presented at this office and tokens obtained therefor and the transmission of bills by post or otherwise avoided as far as possible as such a procedure will only result in delay in the delivery of cheques.

6. Along with the bills presented for audit, a register noting therein the description of the bills should also be sent so that this office may note the token number against each bill. This information will facilitate the office to know to which bill or bills the cheques issued by this office relate, as a single cheque will have to be issued in respect of more than one bill presented by one and the same office or party. The token number or numbers will also be noted in the cheques.

7. The above procedure will not apply in respect of bills of the Education Department.

M. VIRARAJA URS,
Comptroller.
